

Our approach to governance

Introduction

Merafe is committed to high standards of corporate governance and endorses the four governance outcomes set out in King IV, namely an ethical culture, good performance, effective control and legitimacy.

King IV register

The register set out below provides an overview of Merafe's application of the principles contained in King IV. The register should be read in conjunction with the 2025 Integrated Annual Report.

| Principle 1The governing body should lead ethically and effectively.                                                                                                                                                                             | The Merafe Board leads ethically and effectively. Disclosure of interests is a standard agenda item at Board and committee meetings and there is an annual declaration by all directors. Further, there is a Code of Ethics in place which applies to all directors and all employees. It is displayed on Merafe's website www.meraferesources.co.za . There is also a Director Induction and Training Programme, which is reviewed annually. Further, various aspects of Principle 1 are covered in Merafe's Board Charter and other key documents. The Code of Ethics and the Board Charter are on Merafe's website www.meraferesources.co.za  and form part of the 2025 Integrated Annual Reporting suite. The Company has a policy to guide directors on dealing in Company securities and no director or employee may buy or sell the Company's shares during a closed period. |

| Principle 4The governing body should appreciate that the organisation's core purpose, its risks and opportunities, strategy, business model, performance and sustainable development are all inseparable elements of the value creation process. | The Board recognises that all these elements are inseparable, and Merafe follows the capitals approach as described in this report. This integrated approach is taken by the Board at its meetings, strategy sessions and committee meetings. All budgets and strategic plans (medium and longer-term) are approved by the Board. Risks and opportunities are covered in strategy sessions and meetings of the Audit and Risk Committee and the Board in an integrated manner.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

The Company has a diversity policy and has set targets in this regard. This policy has been updated to comply with the JSE Listings Requirements, where further diversity criteria, namely race, culture, age, field of knowledge, skills and experience, have been prescribed. The composition of the Board in terms of race and gender is set out on page 47 . The Board comprises a majority of non-executive members, most of whom are independent. The King IV recommendations for director independence, Board composition, chair, induction and training, managing conflicts and nomination and appointments of directors are met. The Chairperson of the Remuneration Committee is the lead independent director of the Company.                                  |

| Principle 9The governing body should ensure that the evaluation of its own performance and that of its committees, its chair and its individual members support continued improvement in its performance and effectiveness.             | The performance and effectiveness of the Board and its committees are reviewed at least every two years in line with King IV. This process comprises a self-evaluation questionnaire and is coordinated and reported on by the Company Secretary. Areas for improvement are documented and actioned. Performance reviews of individual directors and the Board Chairperson are done every two years. An effectiveness evaluation of the committees and the Board was completed in June 2025. Overall, the outcome was positive with only minor areas for improvement.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |

| Principle 13The governing body should govern compliance with applicable laws and adopted, non-binding rules, codes and standards in a way that supports the organisation being ethical and a good corporate citizen.                    | The Board governs compliance, which is monitored by a combination of management controls, compliance via the Venture, external audit, sponsors and the Company Secretary. There is no dedicated in-house compliance function, nor is one required, given Merafe's size and structure. Merafe relies on processes within the Venture. Compliance is a standard agenda item for the Audit and Risk Committee, which reports to the Board. During the year, the Board and the relevant committees took note of the Companies Act Amendments and also considered the changes to the JSE Listings Requirements. On Friday, 26 July 2024, both the Companies Amendment Bill and the Companies Second Amendment Bill were signed into law. Following the proclamation issued by the President of the Republic of South Africa and published in the Government Gazette Vol. 714 No. 51837 on Friday, 27 December 2024, certain sections of the Companies Amendment Act, No. 16 of 2024 and the entirety of the Companies Second Amendments Act, No. 17 of 2024 (Companies Act Amendments), are now in force. In light of the Companies Act Amendments, the Board and committee work plans and terms of reference were updated during the course of 2025. Merafe will also give consideration to amending its MOI in light of the above. In 2025, Ligwa Advisory Services (Ligwa) conducted a review of Merafe's approach to compliance. The outcome was positive with only "housekeeping" matters for improvement. |

| Principle 15The governing body should ensure that assurance services and functions enable an effective control environment, and that these support the integrity of information for internal decision-making and of the organisation's external reports.                     | Merafe follows a combined assurance model, with assurance being provided by management, Merafe's external auditors, the Venture's internal audit function and the external auditors. Oversight on assurance is provided by the Audit and Risk Committee, which reports to the Board. For more information, see page 56  of this report.During the year, Ligwa continued to act as Merafe's independent internal auditors, reporting functionally to the Audit and Risk Committee.Merafe also receives a statement from an Independent Competent Person on the Mineral Resources and Mineral Reserves as well as other assurance as set out on page 73  of this report. |

Merafe complies with King IV principles, save as otherwise noted and explained in this Integrated Annual Report. The Company is considering King V principles, which were released on 31 October 2025, replacing King IV. We recognise that compliance with King V is a journey and the Board will continue to spend time in 2026 analysing our practices to support the various principles and outcomes in terms of King V, as well as assessing and implementing the recommendations of the JSE guidance papers on sustainability and climate change.
